

How it works

Take part at as many events of our Tour 2019 as possible and try to get the best results as possible, the total prize money distributed is of CHF 2'000.-, and you could earn part of it !!!

Plus, the more you participate, the more will worth your points, according to a special Individual Participation Coefficient. Example:

- if you win your first mens' double you earn 20 points, coefficient 1 = 20 points
- if you participate to a second men's double and you win, you will have 40 points (20+20) multiplied with coefficient 1.1 (2 tournaments played) = 44 points
- if you participate to a third tournament and earn for example 8 points, you will have 48 (20+20+8) multiplied with coefficient 1.2 = 58 points

...and so on. If you participate to all 8 tournaments, your total points will be multiplied by 2. See the tables below for an exhaustive view of the ranking system.

Ranking system

Ranking points Men's & Women's Doubles		Ranking points Mixed Doubles		Individual Participation Coefficient*
Winner	20	Winner	10	1st tournament played	1
Runner-up	12	Finalist	6	2nd	1.1
Semifinal	8	Semifinal	4	3rd	1.2
Quarterfinal	4	Quarterfinal	2	4th	1.3
Last 16	2	Last 16	1	5th	1.4
				6th	1.6
				7th	1.8
				8th	2

*The Individual Participation Coefficient is considered separately in each category (MD, WD, MXD) and counted individually per player, depending on how many tournaments each player takes part to. If a player participates to 2 MD tournaments of the tour, his total points (sum of 2 tournaments) will be multiplied by 1.1. If the player also plays the mixed double, the coefficient is not relevant for the Men's & Women's doubles, in this case the coefficient is counted separately.

Where you can see the Ranking of the Tour

The Ranking will be constantly managed and updated through the platform beachtennis.io. To be included in the ranking system, each player must be registered on beachtennis.io with a personal profile. All players who signed up to the tournaments as guests will not be taken into account for the ranking, unless they create their own profile (this is valid also after the tournament took place). Please be sure that you use your private profile to sign up to our tournaments.
